

24th Annual
Indians In Sobriety Campout

July 22–25, 2010

Point of Pines Lake Campsite

San Carlos Apache Nation

San Carlos, Arizona

“Sacred Circle of Sobriety, Family & Nation”

Indians In Sobriety is a grassroots movement that wishes to focus on the positive aspects of recovery & healing We believe that Native Americans & non-Natives alike can maintain a sober lifestyle and impact the negative effects of alcoholism. It is the purpose of this gathering to honor sobriety and to share various methods regarding recovery & wellness.

Camp activities will include AA/NA Meetings, Talking Circles, Speaker Meetings, Sweat Lodges, Daily Fitness Walks, Kids Craft Tipi, Apache Social Singing & Dancing Sobriety Pow-Wow, Youth Activities., Traditional Feast & Potluck.

Inviting all drums & dancers to the Sobriety Pow-Wow on Saturday, July 24, 2010. Grand Entry at 7:00 p.m.

The San Carlos Apache reservation is located 100 miles east of Phoenix, Arizona. Point of Pines campgrounds is located 50 miles north of the San Carlos Apache agency.

JOIN US FOR 4 DAYS OF CAMPING & FELLOWSHIP!

For More Information, Contact:

Louie L. @ (928) 475-7335
louislorenzo@yahoo.com (best option)

www.indiansinsobriety.org

